Background

In terms of the Council Tax (Exempt Dwellings) Scotland Order 1997 and Council Tax (Exempt Dwellings)(Scotland) Amendment (No.2) Order 1999, a dwelling house may be exempt from Council Tax (including the water and waste water charges) if it falls within one of the categories shown below.

Unoccupied House Which Is:

1. Undergoing or has undergone since the last day it was occupied either major repair work (including structural repair work) to render it habitable OR structural alteration and no more than 12 months have elapsed since the last day it was occupied.
OR
2. Where occupation is prohibited by law or which is unoccupied and is subject to a closing, demolition or compulsory purchase order.

Information: Maximum exemption is 12 months from when the property last occupied. Major works does not include modernisation, renovation or enhancements.

In order to claim an exemption, please complete this form, sign the declaration on page 2 and return it to the address at the bottom of the page along with the appropriate supporting documentation.
