APPLICATION NOTES FOR EXTENDED HOURS

Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005, Section 68

1. Only a Premises Licence Holder can apply for Extended Hours
2. The Period cannot exceed one month and the Extended Hours cannot be extended.
3. If the Premises are open after 1.00am, then the Premises must have a First Aider on the premises from 1.00am and must operate a 12.30am curfew (Section 27(4), the Licensing Conditions (Late Opening Premises)(Scotland) Regulations 2007/336, and Standard Conditions C.17, D.1, D.4).

What happens to the Application?

4. The Application is copied to the Police and the Board's Licensing Standards Officer (LSO).
5. If neither of them makes any adverse comment, and the Application is within the Board's Policy, the Application can be granted under delegated powers, without a Hearing before the Licensing Board.
6. If there is any adverse comment, or if the Application is outside the Board's Policy, the Application must be referred to a Hearing of the Licensing Board. The Applicant will be told of the Hearing and will be able to make representations in favour of the Application.
7. The fee of £10 is not refunded if the Application is refused.

Important: if there are no adverse comments and the Application is within the Board's Policy, it can be dealt with within 18 days of the Application. If a Board hearing is required, the Application procedure will take much longer. Applicants should apply for Extended Hours well before the extra hours are needed, as otherwise there is no guarantee that the extra hours will be available in time for the event or occasion.

Privacy Notice

The personal information you provide on this form will be used by East Dunbartonshire Council to process and determine applications for extended hours.

This personal information may also be shared with other departments within East Dunbartonshire Council, the Council committee's and/or boards, local councillors in the area of the application or other organisations for the same purpose and also to:

- check the information we hold is accurate;
- prevent and/or detect crime; and
- protect public funds.

Other organisations may include bodies responsible for auditing or administering public funds, public sector agencies, governmental departments, regulatory and law enforcement bodies including Police Scotland and the Scottish Fire and Rescue Service, private contractors used by the Council and bodies carrying out data matching exercises.

The legal basis for processing your personal information is:

- The Council's legal obligations under the following legislation:
  - the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 (licensing functions in relation to extended hours)
  - the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973 (to ensure proper administration of the Council's financial affairs) (including the detection and/or prevention of fraud)
  - the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1973 (furnishing of information and documents to the Commission)
  - the Public Finance and Accountability (Scotland) Act 2000 (disclosure of data to Audit Scotland for data matching)
- The following task carried out in the public interest:
  - to appropriately and sufficiently licence the sale of alcohol
  - the prevention and detection of licensing fraud

East Dunbartonshire Council will be unable to process your application form if you fail to provide the information required and extended hours will not be granted. The information requested in this form is required under the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 (Section 68).

East Dunbartonshire Council uses the Scottish Council on Archives Records Retention Schedules to manage the amount of time the Council keeps information. Further information on these can be found here.
