If you have applied for such a post, you will have been notified that the terms of the "Exceptions Order" to the above Act apply to this post.

The terms of the above Act mean that for the purpose of applying for this post you MAY BE ENTITLED to withhold information on a criminal conviction on the grounds that it is "spent" or forgotten following a period of rehabilitation as detailed in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exclusions & Exceptions) (Scotland) Order 2013 as amended (see below)

Convictions within the armed Services; out with the United Kingdom or disciplinary action by certain professional bodies should be included - unless they are regarded as "spent" under the Act.

Please note that these questions have been specifically excluded from job application forms to protect confidentiality and that if you answer "YES" to the declaration(s), the subsequent details that you supply, will be treated in strict confidence and will not automatically exclude you from further consideration for this or any other post.

How long is a Rehabilitation Period?

This depends on the sentence given. For a custodial sentence, the length of time actually served is irrelevant, the rehabilitation period is decided by the original sentence and commences on the date of conviction.

SENTENCES OF MORE THAN 2½ YEARS CAN NEVER BECOME SPENT

Other sentences become spent after fixed periods from the date of conviction; Here are some examples:

Sentence	Rehabilitation Period
	aged 17 or over when convicted	aged under 17 or over when convicted
Prison (immediate or suspended sentence) or youth custody More than 6 months and not exceeding 2½ years	10 years	5 years
Prison (immediate or suspended sentence) or youth custody 6 months or less	7 years	3 ½ years
Fine or community service order	5 years	2½ years
Absolute Discharge	6 months	6 months
There are 2 sentences for people under 21 for which there is no variation in the rehabilitation period according to age when convicted. These are:
Borstal (replaced by youth custody in May 1983)		7 years
Detention Centres		3 years
With some sentences the rehabilitation period varies:
Prohibition, supervision, care order, conditional discharge or bind-over	1 year or until the order expires (whichever is longer)
Attendance centre orders	1 year after the order expires
Hospital orders (with or without a restriction order)	5 years or 2 years after the order expires (whichever is longer)
Orders imposing a disqualification, disability or prohibition	Until the order expires
